

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
WESTERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,	:	Case No. CR-1-02-054-2
Plaintiff,	:	Judge Bunning
vs.	:	MOTION TO CONTINUE
	:	FEBRUARY 3, 2006,
TYREESE D. PUGH	:	SENTENCING
Defendant.

Defendant, Tyreese D. Pugh, through counsel, moves this Court, pursuant to 18 U.S.C 3161, for a continuance of the sentencing date currently set in this matter for February 3, 2006. The grounds for this motion are contained in the accompanying memorandum.

MEMORANDUM

Tyreese' counsel did not receive the Initial Presentence Investigation Report until Saturday, January 28, 2006. Pursuant to the applicable local rules, Tyreese has until February 10, 2006, to communicate any objections to the probation officer. This date is after the scheduled February 3rd sentencing.

Given the seriousness of the offense and the length of the potential sentence facing Tyreese, counsel request a continuance of the currently scheduled sentencing in order to have sufficient time to review the initial report and prepare any objections which may be necessary.

The Defendant's copy of the initial report was forwarded to him today by ordinary U.S. mail at the Boone County Jail for his review. It is possible, counsel may require time beyond February 10, 2006, to adequately respond to the initial report.

For these reasons, counsel request a continuance of the February 3, 2006 sentencing.

Respectfully submitted,

S/ Ravert J. Clark
